

Teaching English: Some aspects and Importance of learning English as a Second Language in India

M.Kalyankumar

Lecturer in English, SKIT, Srikalahasti, Chittoor dist, A.P.

Abstract: English is a major second language in our country. In different parts of the country it is introduced at different levels or classes, depending on the policies of the state. In the last few years, attempts have been made to introduce English from very early stages of schools to college level. One of the major problems of learning English lies with our own mindsets.

Keywords: Teaching English, Listening, Practice, Problem Solving.

